

MORNING APPEAL.

WED. ESDAY..... JULY 14, 1890

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Below is given the text of the platform resolutions adopted by the Republican National Convention at Chicago:

Republican rule has restored upon a solid basis payment in coin for all the national obligations, and has given us a currency absolutely good and legal, and equal in every part of our extended country. It has lifted the credit of the nation from the point where six per cent. bonds sold at 86, to that where four per cent. bonds are eagerly sought at a premium. Under its administration railways have increased from 21,000 miles in 1870 to more than 82,000 miles in 1879. Our foreign trade has increased from $700,000,000 to $1,150,000,000 in the same time, and our exports, which were $20,000,000 less than our imports in 1870, were $204,000,000 more than our imports in 1879. Without resorting to loans, it has, since the war closed, defrayed the ordinary expenses of government, besides the accruing interest on the public debt, and disbursed annually more than $30,000,000 for soldiers' pensions. It has paid $880,000,000 of the public debt, and by refunding the balance at lower rates, has reduced the annual interest charge from nearly $151,000,000 to less than $89,000,000. All the industries of the country have revived; labor is in demand; wages have increased, and throughout the entire country there is evidence of a coming prosperity greater than we have ever enjoyed. Upon this record the Republican asks for the continued confidence and support of the people, and this convention submits for their approval the following statements of the principles and purposes which will continue to guide and inspire its efforts:

ENUMERATION OF PRINCIPLES.
First—We affirm that the work of the last twenty-one years has been such as to commend itself to the favor of the nation, and that the fruits of the costly victories which we have achieved through immense difficulties should be preserved. That the peace regained should be cherished. That the disordered Union, now happily restored, should be perpetuated, and that the liberties secured to this generation should be transmitted undiminished to future generations. That the order established and the credit acquired should never be imperiled. That the pensions promised should be paid. That the debt so much reduced should be extinguished by the full payment of every dollar thereof. That the reviving industries should be further promoted, and that the commerce already so great should be steadily encouraged.
Second—The Constitution of the United States is the supreme law, and not a compact. Out of Confederated States it made a nation. Some powers are denied the Nation, while others are retained by States; but the boundary between the powers delegated and those reserved is to be determined by National and not by State tribunals.
Third—The work of popular education is one left to the care of the several States, but it is the duty of the National government to aid that work to the extent of its constitutional ability. The intelligence of the nation is but the aggregate of the intelligence in the several States, and the destiny of the Nation must be guided, not by the genius of any one State, but the average genius of all.
NON-SECTARIAN SCHOOLS.
Fourth—The Constitution wisely forbids Congress to make any laws respecting an establishing of religion, but it is idle to hope that the Nation can be protected against the influence of sectarianism while each State is exposed to its particular domination. We therefore recommend that the Constitution be so amended as to lay some prohibition upon the Legislature of each State and to forbid the appropriation of public funds to the support of sectarian schools.
Fifth—We affirm the belief avowed in 1870, that the duties levied for the purpose of revenue should not discriminate as to favor American labor. That no further grant of the public domain should be made to any railroad or other corporation. That slavery having perished in the State, its twin barbarity, polygamy, must die in the Territories. That everywhere the protection accorded to a citizen of American birth must be secured to citizens of American adoption. That it is the duty of Congress to develop and improve our water courses and harbors, but we insist that further subsidies to private persons or corporations must cease. That the obligations to the men who preserved its integrity in the day of battle are undiminished by the lapse of fifteen years since their final victory. Their perpetual honor is and shall forever be the grateful privilege and the sacred duty of the American people.

THE CHINESE PLANK.
Sixth—Since the authority to regulate immigration and intercourse between the United States and foreign nations rests with the Congress of the United States, and its treaty-making powers, that the Republican party, regarding the unrestricted immigration of the Chinese as an evil of great magnitude, involves the exercise of the power to restrain and limit that immigration by the enactments of such just, humane and reasonable provisions as will produce the result.
Seventh—That the purity and patriotism which characterized the earlier career of Rutherford B. Hayes, in peace and war, and which guided the thought of his immediate predecessor to him for a Presidential candidature, have continued to inspire him in his career as Chief Executive, and that history will accord to his administration the honors which are due to an efficient, just and courageous fulfillment of the public business, and will honor his interposition between the people and proposed partisan laws.
EIGHTH—We charge upon the Democratic party the habitual sacrifice of patriotism and justice to a supreme and insatiable lust for office and patronage; that to obtain possession of the National and State Governments, and for the control of place and position, they have obstructed all the efforts to preserve the purity and conserve the freedom of suffrage; have devised fraudulent certificates and returns; have labored to unseat lawfully elected members of Congress, to secure at all hazards the vote of the majority of States in the House of Representatives; have endeavored to occupy by force and fraud places of trust given to others by the people of Maine, and secured by the courage and action of Maine's patriotic sons; have by methods vicious in principle and tyrannical in practice attached partisan legislation to appropriation bills; have crushed the rights of individuals, and vindicated the principles and sought the favor of rebellion against the Nation, and have endeavored to obliterate the sacred memories of the war and to overcome its indelible good results—freedom and individual equality. We affirm it to be the duty and purpose of the Republican party to use all the legitimate means of this Union to secure the perfect harmony which may be practicable, and we submit to the practicable, sensible people of the United States to say whether it would not be dangerous to the best interests of our country at this time to surrender the administration of the National Government to a party which seeks to overthrow the existing policy under which we are so prosperous, and thus bring destruction and confusion where there is now order, confidence and hope.
